Heather Pierson is a pianist, singer/songwriter, song leader, and performer with a passion for cultivating joy, both onstage and off. Her uplifting live performances with her bassist/partner Shawn Nadeau delve into New Orleans jazz, blues, and folk. Best known for her ease at the piano and her bell-tone vocals, Heather's songs embody honesty, playfulness, and a desire to share from the heart. From the delta to the mountains and back again, this duo's performances take listeners' ears and hearts on a journey with their conversational style of musicianship, speaking the language of music with ease and wit.
